

Nonprofit Executives:

Join your Colleagues for a FREE Workshop

OceanPoint Insurance, along with nonprofit industry professionals, continues its executive workshop series on Tuesday, September 17 with a focus on Human Resource (HR) topics. Cynthia Koral will speak on ways to manage the nonprofit's Unemployment exposure and costs through claims management and funding outside of the costly RI state plan. Elizabeth Manchester will bring insight to institutional policies and practices that respond to the changing employer/employee relationships in the #MeToo era. This workshop presents an environment for nonprofit executives – CEO, Executive Director, CFO, HR Director, COO, Board Member – to hear from the experts, share with peers in an intimate environment and leave with actionable takeaways for their mission. OceanPoint Insurance is committed to delivering risk management, insurance products and practical resources that support our clients and friends in the nonprofit sector.

WHEN: Tuesday, September 17, 2019 • 9:00am – 11:30am

WHERE: United Way of Rhode Island
50 Valley Street, Providence, RI 02909

MODERATOR: David Madara, Nonprofit Practice Leader for OceanPoint Insurance Agency

SPEAKERS:

Cynthia Koral
Chief Marketing Officer
501c Agencies Trust

20 Tips on Managing Unemployment Exposure
Approved SHRM and HRCI Credit

Elizabeth Manchester
Attorney
Partridge, Snow & Hahn

Key Policies for Nonprofits in the #MeToo Era

RSVP: Please pre-register for this free workshop by contacting David Madara at dmadara@oceanpointins.com or call 401.367.1165.

www.oceanpointins.com

Insurance and any other services offered, recommended, sponsored or sold by OceanPoint Insurance Agency, Inc. are not a deposit. Not FDIC-Insured. Not insured by any federal, government agency. Not guaranteed by BankNewport may go down in value.